Titus Wad Has Chicken for Lunch.

HERE'S ANOTHER PRIZE WINNER IN FIRST OF "TIMES" SERIES OF WEEKLY CONTESTS FOR FUNNY IDEAS FOR A LOCAL COMIC STRIP.

This idea, which won last week's weekly prize of $4, was suggested by Arthur J. Smith, 2220 Eastside Boulevard, Los Angeles. Starting every Friday and ending every Thursday, The Times conducts one such contest. The best idea gets $10, the next $5 and all others $1 each. Ideas must be original, local, "drawable" and funny. Each picture must be described in words or a rough sketch. Title and dialogue must be supplied. All entries must deal with some members of the Wad family—Titus Wad, the father, the mother, the son, the daughter, the son's wife, the son's son, and son's daughter. Watt A. Wad, sporty, speedster son; Elsie Wad, pretty and vivacious daughter; Gunn Wad, 12-year-old jester, and Cleo Wad, Jr., the baby. Address all communications to Mr. Wad, care The Times, Los Angeles. Anya may compete and submit as many ideas as desired.

THE FINAL BLAST.

It had been a terrible day for Arbuckle and for his wife, who sat beside him all through it. Then came the final blast—uttered in that same, slow, steady voice of the prosecutor.

The State's belief it has secured enough evidence in the case to hold the State's belief. Your Honor can judge from the testimony offered here whether or not the defendant should be held to stand trial on the charge.

The State is through.

DOMINGUES FLAMBERRGASTED.

Domingues looked at Golden as if he had not heard, as if he did not care. The State's star witness turned and sat in his chair.

Fatty's wife looked up at Golden suddenly, then turned away her head. Domingues jumped up, leaped as though for breath, and then sat down again.

He declared it was unfair, un-

just. He declared the State's star

The State believes it has presented enough evidence in this hearing. The State believes Your Honor can judge from the testimony of the witness that the defendant should be held to answer in this court, and on what charge. The State is through.

DOMINGUEZ FLABBERGASTED.

He declared he was unfair, unless he had not heard as it was done.

Fatty turned around in his chair. Fatty's wife looked up at him suddenly, then turned her head. Dominguez stopped, gasped as though for breath, and shouted.

He declared it was unfair, unless he had not heard as it was done.

Mrs. Maude Delmont, his wife, had not been called as a witness. Mrs. Delmont who had signed the complaint against Fatty, had been back from Los Angeles at public expense by the State, and not called by the State—Fischbach, sober man of America, who had been at the party in the St. Francis and is willing to tell what he knows. Fischbach, a physician, not called by the State, and possibly others.

"I feel in advance," said the judge, "that I am going to decide the case in your favor. It will be up to the higher court if there is shown to be a probable cause, and leave the guilty or innocent to a jury."

PREVOST GIRL TESTIFIES.

Zeh Prevost was the first witness to take the stand in the hearing.

Arbuscule, Miss Rappé, Mrs. Blame, Alfred Schenck and Lowell Sherman, all of the Arbuscule's suit when joined the party, ate dinner with Arbuscule and Sherman were dressed in pajamas, bathrobes and slippers, she said.

Miss Rappé was seated on a settee at Arbuscule's side, according to the witness, who said she saw "little bit" of drinking. Fred Fischbach later joined the party. Miss Rappé and others were in and out of the room.

MISS RAPPÉ LEAVES ROOM.

"Did you see Miss Rappé leave the room at any time?" asked Assistant Dist. Atty. Milton T. Han.

"About an hour later," she replied. Arbuscule followed Miss

Rappé out of the room.

"I won't call her," Dominguez shouted, taking from his mouth the end of his dark red tie, which he had been wearing, and which he hoped to be found by the witness. She should be the State's principal witness, she should be put on the stand. She may die, but she may not be able to testify at the trial, if

SLEUTHS AT WORK.

Intrigues after the letters were published in the law was over again and the cleverest sleuths in the Federal service in this district went to work on the Gardner case. They attempted to pick up the trail from the very first letters contained in the two letters.

Since Gardner made his reckless return to the mainland, the authorities have been continually waiting for something that would definitely prove that he had made his way to McNeil's Island. The letter, after the first one, was sent to the front in that burage, that reached the mainland, and without reaching the coast, worked his way back to a spot under the very nose of his checkers and later slipped through the bushes on the northern end of McNeil's Island and escaped by swimming to Fox Island.

Outside of finding in his mind the fact that Gardner was successful in finding his patrol boat on the island and is safe on the mainland, the authorities have given the authorities practically nothing to go on but the direction in which he had gone.

The new export market in Russia will make it easier for Germany to raise indemnity money.

France, military necessity, requires Russia to insist under Bolshevik management, are back of the new Soviet's change of policy.

Kamenoff's announcement that he would not be a party to the negotiations with foreigners whose property in Russia has been confiscated as the symptoms of the overthrow of a state obliges us to withdraw for the moment from the political field as much as possible from judgments of neighboring republics. It is well known that La Prevost was held in high esteem by the Czar's government.

Both letters have been turned over to the Federal and post office authorities, who are making a careful study of the letters and attempting to find some clue directing them to some spot where they were written.

The witness said she saw Miss Rappé take only one drink of gin and orange juice. After the girl was in the cold bath, according to Miss Prevost, she had a good many drinks of whisky, beer, other things. Mrs. Delmont was dressed in pajamas, according to the testimony.

"She cried loudly again when she was put back on the bed," Miss Prevost said.

FOUND PLACE EMPTY.

When Arbuscule followed Miss Rappé she did not hear any bolt turned, according to the witness, and she was put on a bed.

"I am dying, he hurt me," said Miss Prevost.

A restorative given the girl caused her to become sick at her stomach. The witness continued.

Then Fischbach entered the room and Miss Rappé was dipped in a tub of cold water, according to the testimony.

"She cried loudly again when she was put back on the bed," Miss Prevost said.

ARBUCKLE'S THREAT.

"I am dying," Arbuscule said, "If you don't stop yelling I'll throw you out the window."

Arbuscule then went back into the other room, Miss Prevost continued, and soon returned with ice and Miss Rappé with the statement: "I'll make her come to me."

In answer to a question from the prosecution, she said: "I am the first to admit that I was not here. I did not hear Mrs. Delmont say, 'Fosco, you will have your little joke.'

Some one put in a telephone call, she said, but some other person jerked away the receiver, saying no one was wanted.

"There was music being played, and there was noise."

On examination by the defense, it was determined that she received an invitation by telephone to come to Arbuscule's party. She had met the comedian a long time before, she said, and she did not know to whom she was referred.

She said she found Arbuscule and Lowell Sherman, Miss Rappé, Mrs. Blame and Ira Fortoulis in Arbuscule's apartment when she joined the party.

Arbuscule wore pajamas, bathrobe and slippers. He was in athletic undershirt and slippers, Mrs. Delmont's men's pajamas, she declared. Miss Prevost joined the party soon after her arrival. Miss Blame was the last to leave. Miss Rappé entered room 1219, one of the adjoining rooms, followed by Arbuscule.

KNOCKED AND KICKED.

Miss Rappé said she found Mrs. Delmont knock and kick at the door of room 1219 later, saying "let me in."

An interval elapsed before she saw Miss Rappé in room 1219 lying on a bed unclad. Miss Rappé said with her hair down, and crying.

Miss Rappé told of moving Miss Rappé to another bed.

When asked what Arbuscule did, Miss Rappé started to tell of an ice incident, however, and accepted the offer of Judge Lazarus to whisper her answer to the short hand reporter.

Arbuscule said she was the one who administered the restorative that Miss Rappé was unable to hold on her stomach. Then a cold bath followed.

"I am dying, he hurt me," Miss Rappé said when we brought her back to the bed. Miss Blame said: "I told her she was not going to die."

"You're crazy, shut up or I'll throw you out of the window," she said, and she continued, "I am dying."

Mrs. Delmont said something about Arbuscule taking everything as a joke," she continued. Miss Rappé from the prosecution.

Miss Rappé was not certain about the location of all members of the party during the incident, however, she thought that Fischbach carried Miss Rappé to the bath tub.

STRIKERS STILL
KEEP UP WATCH.Reports of Importation of Men Cause Worry.Union Heads Post Orders for Searching Country.Labor Conciliator Preparing
New Wage Scale.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.

BAKERSFIELD. Sept. 17.—Another day of watchful waiting was ushered in by striking oil workers from the Kern, Santa and Coalinga fields. The watchers along the roads, aroused by frequent reports that unidentified automobiles were seen in the fields, were carrying five and six men, and were returning empty save for the driver, but continued their vigilance, but discontinued their inspections of the fields without stopping them.

WARNINGS POSTED.

The strike leaders posted bulletins at the various headquarters in the districts, calling attention of the public to this situation, and declared that a careful search be made for any unexpected colonies of strikebreakers that might thus have been gathered.

The patrols were instructed to take a look through various large ranches near the different oil fields where strike conditions existed, and where supplies and cooking equipment were known to be available for housing on some places as many as 100 men. The reported influx of strikebreakers, however, did not materialize.

MAKE PUBLIC WIRE.

A committee of ex-service men from six towns in the oil fields, where strike conditions exist, today gave a telegram to the head sent to the Oil Producers Association of California at Los Angeles, after reciting that the committee represented 3000 ex-service men.

"A large percentage of the strikers are men holding honorable discharges from the Army, Navy or Marine Corps, or the United States men who served faithfully our interests during the World War for $3 per month; that you especially during the time they employed handsome protection from the oil industry."

The telegram says that during the war all men were obliged to take the word of the government, and that the men had abiding faith in its ability.

The signers then ask whether the oil operators are not willing to cast their lot with the government and make a strike settlement to the Federal government.

Copies were sent to President Harding, Secretary Davis of the Department of Labor and other government officials.

The recently appointed executive committee of the Oil Producers Association of California will hold its meeting at the Wilson Building tomorrow morning, according to a statement last night by its secretary, John T. Wootan.

The signers say that for the time he felt justified in saying that events are justified themselves satisfactorily to the producers.

SOBERING EFFECT.

"We find that the announcement that the chiefs of the oil companies that the Orange counties do not intend to appoint strikers as deputies in case a strike is called, in this section has had a very sobering effect upon the men who are here in this region," said Mr. Wootan.

"It does not look as if a strike will be resorted to in this end of the state, but the men here all know that there will be no violation of the fundamental principles of our government by having strikers placed in control of the police systems in this state."

FIXED NEW WAGE SCALE.

Capt. Charles T. Connell, Federal Labor Conciliator, says that with his associates, he is preparing another wage scale for the consideration of the oil operators. He is optimistic that good results will come from the new tender. There was no information to be had from the Bolivian government, however, as it is understood that it makes some concessions not involved in the agreement that was rejected by the workers.

RAILROAD STRIKE.TIE-UP PRACTICALLY ASSURED,
ACCORDING TO BROTHERHOOD
VICE-PRESIDENT.

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.

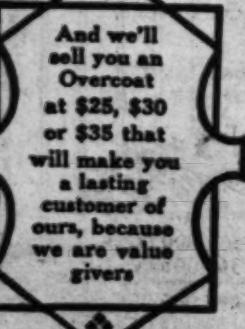

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen was assured today when James Murdoch, vice-president of that organization, said a walkout will be demanded by the members of the union who indicated the desire of the men to quit. The vote, so far counted, is overwhelmingly in favor of a strike.

The union, which includes the conductors, engineers and firemen, and the switchmen's unions, and it is said, all strongly favor a strike. It will be taken until after the meeting of the four brotherhoods chieftains here, October 2.

The opinion prevails that there will be no strike until the country is back to normal, and traffic is running heavily again, but it is likely there will be a number of strikes in the states where the local unions will take aim in their own hands.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

A prominent physician says that by far the largest number of women's ailments are not surgical ones, that is they are not caused by serious displacements, or growths. Symptoms similar in character are often brought about by simple everyday occurrences, the most common being a woman who suffers from headache, bearing down pains, side aches, irregularities, nervous debility, or weakness to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It acts as a natural restorative and often prevents more serious trouble. [Advertisement]

BATTLE THREE FIRES IN NORTH.

Forces of Men Combat Flames Near Santa Barbara.

Poisoned Birds Cause Blazes. Declare Hunters.

Chain Gang Fights Malibu Conflagration.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH) SANTA BARBARA, Sept. 27.—Fire fighters today are battling a blaze which started on the Jalama ranch, thirty-four miles northwest of this city, and is sweeping over a wide territory. The fire has not reached the Santa Barbara Forest Reserve and a hard fight is being made tonight to prevent the flames from spreading to the reserve.

Another fire has started on the Mission Ranch, near San Marcos Pass, and may extend into the region which surrounds the property.

Late yesterday the fire, which is estimated to be from 100 to 150 acres, was being controlled. Men are being hurried into the sage from the Santa Clara Valley, Ojai and other sections. The forestry office reports that all these fires are of mysterious origin.

THEORY OF FIRES.

That the mysterious forest fires which are breaking out in all parts of the forest reserves and in the farming districts of Santa Ynez Valley are caused in large part by phosphorus from the crop of birds' nest pods, which is used to destroy ground squirrels, is the theory of hunters and others who have been through the fire regions.

At a Cooper City, former head of the State Mine Bureau, says that the theory is reasonable. He says phosphorus is preserved when immersed in water and ignites when it comes in contact with air.

Thousands of doves and other birds have been killed by eating poisoned grain. When a bird is poisoned it dies, water is taken in its gizzard and when in flight falls dead.

The carcass, drying up releases the phosphorus in the crop and thus ignites during these hot days. It is reported Governor and his officials are investigating the matter.

Hunters months ago reported doves and quail dead from eating grain which had been poisoned. Commissioners scouted the idea, but A. S. A. states that while inspecting oil lands in Santa Ynez Valley he saw dove droppings which were flying and investigation disclosed poisonous grain in their crops.

CHAIN GANG FIGHTS FIRE.

Fifty men of the Los Angeles county chain gang and men of the road department, who are constructing a new road through the Rincon estate, fortunately were near at hand when a dangerous fire broke out in Solstice Canyon yesterday afternoon.

The canyon is ten miles up the coast from the Topanga Canyon, and the fire centered at a point about two miles from the road, just inside the property line of the Rincon estate.

County Forester Flintham believes the men have the fire under control, and that a serious conflagration has been averted.

Prior to receiving the message about this fire, Mr. Flintham's office was breathing easy over the

Other dams and other units, Mr. Mulholland said, should be built by step by step, the river until the entire stream is fully controlled and harnessed, the untamed giant of the West put to work with its mighty power to benefit the people and the country and the land and the abundance of the whole Southwest.

Deputy Police Chief Places Are Asked For.

The City Council was asked yesterday by Chief of Police Jones to create the positions of first and second deputies chiefs. The first deputy would have control of the police department in the absence of the chief.

If the places are created by the Council, examinations for them will be held by the City Service Commissioners. The salaries for the deputys are to be fixed by the City Council. The Board of Police Commissioners has approved of Chief Jones's recommendations.

COINCIDENCE IN ACTIONS FOR DIVORCE

Lillian Snibley Named as "Other Woman;" Another of Same Name Seeks Decree

Two divorce suits filed yesterday developed an unusual coincidence. Berdie Leaming asked a divorce from Karl L. Leaming, declaring that her husband had confided his love for one Lillian Snibley and that the confession was made in the presence of the plaintiff, her daughter and an attorney.

At about the same time, Lillian May Snibley filed a divorce action against her ex-husband. Her attorney, however, denies that his client is the woman mentioned in the Leaming suit.

Mrs. Leaming says that her husband has property valued at $40,000 and that he is in the stock business. The couple have a large collection of trucks. The marriage took place Sept. 7, 1902, and the separation was about three years ago, according to the complaint. There is an 18-year-old daughter and a 10-year-old son. The plaintiff asks for $15,000 attorney's fees and $500 a month alimony.

The Snibleys separated September 12, last.

PAIR PART FIVE TIMES; WIFE IS GIVEN DIVORCE.

After five separations in nine years of married life, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph P. Looney will live together again. They were granted a divorce yesterday by Judge Toland. She told the court that most of their marital troubles were caused by themselves which her husband received from women.

A number of these letters were introduced in court. One of them reads, "Daddy, I want to come right now—their house is ours and I am coming as soon as I can, I am the sweetest, bestest daddy in the world."

Another concluded with, "Daddy dear, I always love you more when I am with you. You have a way when you're gone to make me forget everybody else, and I am always so happy with you."

The husband is advance agent of a road show.

GROWN IN LOS ANGELES.

Vegetables From Municipal Farm Put on Exhibition at City Hall.

City Police Court Defender Pope yesterday placed on view in the first floor lobby at the City Hall an exhibit of agricultural products from the municipal farm at Griffith Park. The farm covers 120 acres. The products shown include watermelons, pumpkins, sweet potatoes, field corn, sorghum, peppers and other produce. Labor for the farm is provided by parolees from the City Jail, half of whom eighty-seven have been sent to the farm since April 1, when it was established under Major Pope's direction. The men work in the fields under the "honor" system. The products from the farm are used by the city in feeding prisoners.

TO PLAN NEW PEETE PLEA.

Mr. Leslie E. Peete, convicted of the murder of Jacob Charles Denney and denied a new trial in a decision handed down by the District Court of Appeal, will have a long conference with his attorney, W. Ford, of the firm of Ford & Boddy, tomorrow for the purpose of planning the next step in her fight for justice. This step will be an appeal to the State Supreme Court, and a hearing was indicated by Mr. Peete Monday, immediately after the District Court's decision was rendered. The conference between Mr. Ford and Mrs. Peete is expected to cover all the points in the jury's verdict.

Although none of the attorneys connected with the case was willing to make a definite prediction until the motion is filed, it is expected that the application to the State Supreme Court for a rehearing will be denied.

The District Court of Appeal held that this misconduct, consisting of a bitter personal attack on Mrs. Peete and comments on her appearance which were not sufficiently prejudicial to warrant a reversal of the jury's verdict,

FINDS WOMAN'S NOT COMPETENT

Court Declares Mrs. Gilmore Not Legally Responsible.

Decision Follows Suit for Divorce by Husband.

Physicians Say Daughter of Packer Mentally Ill.

Mrs. Louise H. Gilmore, wife of Earl B. Gilmore, president and manager of the A. F. Gilmore Company and of the Los Angeles Petroleum Company, and only daughter of Julius Hauser, pioneer packer, was declared an incompetent person yesterday by Judge Rives, and her brother, Edward C. Hauser, vice-president of the Hauser Packing Company, was named as her guardian. Mr. Hauser, who headed the petition, gave his reasons.

The suit followed a divorce action filed some time ago by Mr. Gilmore in which he was accused of cruelty and mental perversion. Mr. L. D. Dookwater, attorney for Mrs. Gilmore and Mr. Hauser, stated that they would not and that the divorce action would not be continued by the findings in the present case. The divorce case is to come up next month.

Physicians declared that Mrs. Gilmore was suffering from mental acts that she is mentally incompetent. They said she has not been able to comprehend the divorce action yet or its significance. She said, "I am not throughout the trial in a passive manner, never seeming to care or know what was going on about her. She was not able to impress upon me that she did not seem to know anything regarding her state of mind."

Dr. H. G. Brainerd testified that he was unable to impress upon her the gravity of the situation. Dr. Brainerd said that he had been retained by the defense to determine if she was of sound mind. He said that he directed his purpose to have her sole guide for her actions. When asked what she did or said when the citation was served upon her, he said, "She was in a passive manner, but when I asked her questions, she declared that she tore them up, stating that they were not properly signed. Dr. Brainerd said that he was unable to impress upon her the gravity of the situation."

water and landed in the sea, sinking immediately. The other victim had apparently reached the sea through the conning tower when a rush of water washed him overboard. A sailor from the Camden arrived after the sunken vessel in searching the drowning man, but finally lost his grip on him. This may be believed to have been Drefein. The R-6 sank in the harbor bottom in thirty-five feet of water and with its conning tower about eight feet below the surface. The Camden, after the submarine had been towed by the tug Sonoma to a new mooring place and a pumping tug, flying red ensign, had washed over the submerged hull, warning all incoming and outgoing vessels to remain clear. Deep-sea divers, many shifts took all day, later late into the night over the R-6, descending into the sunken ship through the conning tower. These divers entered every compartment in search of the missing crew members who might have been trapped within, and to close all the hatches. At 5 p.m. pumping lines were attached and the process of emptying the water from the R-6 to permit its rise to surface was begun.

STRICT CENSORSHIP.
The strictest censorship was applied to all officers and men in the fleet, pending the meeting of the board of inquiry, which is scheduled for Oct. 1. Capt. W. E. B. Eberle, commander of Pacific Fleet, under seas forces, declined to make any statement. He explained that any information must be obtained from the senior officer of the fleet.

Admiral Eberle, the fleet commander, was in San Diego at the time of the disaster. Vice-Admiral Bremner was the senior officer in command during the admirals absence. The admiral's absence he could offer no explanation for the sinking until the board of inquiry met. This meeting is to take place today.

"Enough nobody knows the cause of the disaster," he said, "it is probable that the locking device on one of the torpedo tubes has been jammed when it was closed and was suddenly forced open with the rush of water. But we will not know definitely until the board of inquiry meets."

Admiral Eberle will arrive at Los Angeles Harbor today to determine the responsibility for the loss of one of the Navy's latest types of submarines.

HISTORY OF R-6.
The R-6 was built by the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Company of Quincy, Mass., during the period 1917-1919, and was constructed in twenty-three months. The submarines, R-1 to R-20, are similar, being built by the same company. The R-6 left Norfolk, Va., for the west coast with the Monitor to R-14, April 19, 1921, in April, 1921, with the U.S.S. Camden as tender, arriving in the Pacific about May 1.

The submarine was 188 feet and 11 1/2 inches in length; breadth, 18 feet, 6 1/4 inches; displacement, 650 tons; speed, surface, 14.6 knots, submerged, 10.5 knots; launched, March 1, 1919; commissioned, April 19, 1921; carries a complement of two officers, three chief petty officers and twenty-four men. Armament consists of one 16-inch gun, one 12-inch gun, two 18-inch torpedoes and carried eight torpedoes.

Lieut. J. R. Chambers was the commanding officer. His junior officers were Lieut. S. D. Jupps and Lieut. J. M. Steele.

ARRESTED AGAIN AS POISON-LAW BREAKER

Tom Wan, a Chinese, was arrested late yesterday for the second time in two weeks and lodged in the City Jail on a charge of having violated state poison laws. With the Chinaman four other persons were taken into custody. The five men were taken in a raid on a Chinese restaurant owned by Wan at 915 Central Avenue.

DRAWING OPENS PRISON DOORS.

Now Uneducated Mexican Started Art Critics to Be Told in "Times."

A Mexican bandit, confined in jail, started art critics by drawing with a pencil on the steel wall of his cell a remarkable picture of the Crucifixion. So marvelous was the uneducated Mexican's portrayal of the Christ that a Los Angeles man determined to free the bandit from the prison to which he had been sent. Released and with opportunity, wealth and fame within his grasp, he let them slip. The full story of this tragedy of life will be told in The Times next Sunday.

DECISION AWARDING COMMISSION UPHELD.

In the suit brought by C. L. Cains and E. F. Loscher to recover compensation on a real estate deal the judgment of Superior Judge J. P. Wood in favor of the plaintiffs was affirmed by Department No. 1 of the District Court of Appeal.

The suit followed a divorce action filed some time ago by Mr. Gilmore in which he was accused of cruelty and mental perversion. Mr. L. D. Dookwater, attorney for Mrs. Gilmore and Mr. Hauser, stated that they would not and that the divorce action would not be continued by the findings in the present case. The divorce case is to come up next month.

Physicians declared that Mrs. Gilmore was suffering from mental acts that she is mentally incompetent. They said she has not been able to comprehend the divorce action yet or its significance. She said, "I am not throughout the trial in a passive manner, never seeming to care or know what was going on about her. She was not able to impress upon me that she did not seem to know anything regarding her state of mind."

Dr. H. G. Brainerd testified that he was unable to impress upon her the gravity of the situation.

MAGNIFICENT SILVERWOOD HOME SOLD.

Mansion Built for Bride Passes Into Hands of Dr. Carl Wickland at Auction.

Happleland, the magnificent country home at Eagle Rock built by F. B. ("Daddy") Hayes, prominent Los Angeles merchant, for his bride less than a year ago, passed under the auctioneer's hammer to other hands yesterday. The new owner of the residence and the thirty acres surrounding it, according to C. H. O'Connor, auctioneer, is Dr. Carl A. Wickland of 6027 Hayes avenue. The consideration was said to have been $50,000.

Whether Happleland is to become the residence of a Los Angeles physician or is to be transformed into a sanatorium could not be learned last night. Dr. Wickland declined to say where he came from and decided that he is not ready to announce the nature of his plans concerning it.

Happleland, the residence, is a seven-room house with large porches and outdoor living-rooms, and is set in the midst of beautiful grounds. Its furnishings were specially designed by Mr. Hayes and his bride.

The residence, scores of paintings and rich bric-a-brac were sold separately under the hammer for $10,000 and brought high prices. It is said, scores of prospective buyers crowding the grounds and houses all day.

"Daddy" Silverwood less than a year ago had sold his home to Dr. Winkler of San Francisco, for whom the home was built.

Last in August he became known as Mr. Hayes' husband, having given the home and it was given out that the separation was due to temperamental incompatibilities.

At that time Mr. Hayes, 6027 Hayes, was reported as having said that he was willing that Mrs. Silverwood should return to Happleland, but it became apparent, attorneys said, that this was impossible less than those originally demanded by Mrs. Silverwood.

Soon thereafter attorneys representing both Mr. and Mrs. Silverwood reached an agreement, and the agreement had been reached after several days of negotiations.

Although the terms of the settlement were not made public, it was understood that they were agreeable less than those originally demanded by Mrs. Silverwood.

THE MILLS WILL GRIND.
If the witnesses in the Arbuckle case
are all going to sue the attorneys for defamation of character the courts are likely to give an effective imitation of perpetual motion. There is no wish that this case should go into continuous.

YEARS AND MATRIMONY.
A centenarian who married the other
day said that every man ought to have a wife every fifty years or so. His first wife died in 1880 and so he thought it was time
he took another. By the time he gets his third he may change his mind.

SWEDISH MOVEMENT.
They are using a new turbine engine
on the railways in Sweden that is said to be a wonder in furnishing a maximum of power with the minimum of fuel. This is a happy combination that the Americans
might consider to good purpose. We need to hear more.

THE SKY PILOTS.
The entire congregation at a religious service in Texas last Sunday arrived by airplanes. The preaching was at Fort Crockett and the worshippers came in eighteen government planes from Ellington Flying Field. For folks going heavenward an airship certainly gives a wonderful start.

IN UNION IS STRENGTH?
The moonshiners and bootleggers are
said to be forming a union for the purpose
of standardizing the price and the product
and of combining for defense against prosecution. It is presumed that no loyal Fed-erationist will spic his palate with non-
union hooch. But it is going to be higher the bootleggers to keep union hours. Maybe
they will compromise by charging double
rates for overtime stuff.

THE OUTLOOK.
President Harding told the delegates
to the unemployment conference that the country was "fundamentally sound, financially strong, industrially unimpaired, com-mercially consistent and politically unafraid." It needs an optimist to say these things and yet, when the test is applied,
they can all be substantiated. Sometimes
there are incidents and instances of fla-
grant variance, but in the main the nation is up to the Harding specifications. If we liquidate the past, take knowledge of the present and have courage for the future
there will soon be no problem of the unemployed. Such is the Harding judgment
and who shall say it is not well-founded?

MORE EQUALITY WANTED.
Some of the ladies are not satisfied
with the constitutional amendments they have. The Woman's National party is instituting a campaign for another one. They would make it the twentieth. It would provide that there shall be no political, civil
or legal inequalities because of sex or marriage. They want the right to go to war, to challenge Democracy, to run for sheriff or representatives, the same as any man. Whether any man in America may do that they demand the right. They may not exercise the right to carry plug tobacco in
the hip pocket, but they insist on the privilege of doing so with no questions asked.
First thing we know the men will be kicking
up and demanding some of the rights that women have.

AFTER THE SMOKERS.
A Tulare county capitalist offered to
gadow the Red Cross with $5 in real money if the organization would consecrate itself to the mission of suppressing smoking
in the public places of the earth. On account of a press of other obligations the Red Cross was compelled to refuse. The Tulare county man is therefore operating on his own account. At present he is directing his efforts toward the abolition of smoking on the county fair grounds. He does not want the Hoister levers to activate the cigarette habit. If the American people can be brought to the point where they cut off all smoking in the parks and
pleasure grounds the purification of the country, in his opinion, would be made a more simple proposition. Save our fair grounds from any contaminating alliance
with Lady Nicotine.

THE BAD BOY'S FRIEND.
The Los Angeles schools have another
assistant superintendent. In the election of Dr. Lickley the Board of Education gave recognition to a work that has at heart the interests of the so-called bad boy, or, in the terms of modern pedagogy, the subnormal
boy. The work of the child welfare department of the schools under Dr. Lickley's supervision has received favorable attention here and elsewhere and, while two members of the board saw fit to vote
against his election, professing at the same time personal esteem for the choice of a majority of members, there is no reason
apparent why school harmony should be jeopardized or educational development retarded by this promotion. On the other hand, it would seem that Dr. Lickley's
sphere has been broadened and his opportunity for service greatly increased. Dr.
Lickley has been in the Los Angeles schools
a long time and once or twice has been involved in unfortunate personal and educational controversies. He will find no place for such extraneous interests in his new work. Doubtless his experience has taught him this.

THE NEW JAIL SITUATION.

This is a subject The Times has been hammering upon for over six years. The dire need of a new jail was urgent and obvious back in 1915 and it is more urgent
and obvious today.

Certain decisions of paramount importance have been reached. The county Supervisors and the city have agreed upon a joint structure, a ten-story building to be erected on the site of the present County Jail. The county has agreed to furnish the money and the city to make an annual rental contribution for their quarters amounting
to a 5 per cent interest on their apportionment of the capital involved. The final details of the financing have not yet been completely worked out, but the county has arranged for the money and the City Council
is understood to be fairly unanimous in their intent to let foreign interference in domestic questions.

It has been agreed that all the criminal
courts, district and city attorney offices, police headquarters, depositories and filing bu-
reaus shall be housed in the one building,
occupying the six lower floors, while the
four upper floors will form the men's and women's jail departments.

And the plans for the interior are almost
completed, involving as they do infinite detail insuring that every requirement of a
first-class, modern structure for the purpose is obtained. Each department of criminal procedure has been consulted, so that the best system of accommodation and efficiency
may be assured—that when the building is
erected it will properly fulfill every requirement demanded of it. In short, that when it is done it will be done right.

When these interior plans are finally accepted—a consummation promised within a few weeks—a company of architects will collaborate on the exterior plans that the
building may present a worthy structure;
embodying the dignity and prestige of justice
in a wealthy county. In short, the new jail is appreciable in sight, belated but tangible.

But there must positively be no further delays. Each department of the public administration that craves expansion and county appropriations considers its own needs
paramount and prefers to regard the jail
as a secondary consideration.

Probably it never occurred to Mr. Cherrington that he was using the identical argument which Lenin and Trotsky advanced
in support of their attempt to organize a world revolution of the proletariat. But a number of European thinkers were instantly struck by the similarity of the two pro-
nouncements and they have not hesitated
to call attention to it. They aver that, if the United States government exercises the right to deport soviet agents, the governments of Europe possess an equal right to deport the agents of the American Anti-saloon League.

"There's nothing up here!"

But there is no public enterprise more
vitally important at this time than wiping out
the shame and disgrace of the present
City and County Jails—neither flood control, public libraries, street improvements,
art centers nor any other passionately advocated enterprise must be allowed to take precedence of this matter. The present condition of our jails is an outrage against
public decency, common humanity, justice

and welfare.

During the last twelve months the "wets"
on the other side of the Atlantic have regained much of the ground that they lost
during the period immediately following
the war, when prohibition was urged for economic reasons. Under Czar Nicholas
national prohibition was enforced in Russia;
but the soviets have repealed that edict and
now encourage the manufacture and sale
of mild alcoholic liquors, limiting the strength to 14 per cent. While few pay much attention to the constantly varying
effects of the soviet, one can safely disregard the bad effects of the Norwegian.
Two years ago Norway went bone dry;
but within recent months the dry laws have
been repealed and a new national act has
been passed fixing a limit of alcoholic content at 14 per cent, the same as in Russia.

Ferdinand Tuck, asserts in an article
published in the New York World that outside pressure caused the removal of the prohibition laws of Norway. At least half the population of that country is supported by its fisheries. There has always been an exchange of the fish of Norway for the wines of Spain and Portugal. But when these countries no longer found a market
for their wines in Norway they put an official embargo on the fish of that country;
and the fishermen raised such a volume of
protest that the prohibition act was repealed.

Even the police quarters are dingy, dirty,
filthy, inadequate and always out of order.
The cells are dark, airless, loathsome and
unclean and are called upon to contain twice
their proper number of tenants for sleeping
purposes.

These are the abominable post holes in
which the unfortunate and perhaps innocent
await the dispensation of justice and, for minor offenses, in which they remain
for long periods, undermining their health,
their self-respect, suffering the last horrors
of degradation to fit them, forsaken, for
reformation, redemption and new endeavor.

In 1915 several citizens' committees investigated these jail conditions and their reports bore out in every particular the disgusting facts to which The Times had drawn attention. And what was bad then
is infinitely worse now—six years worse,
six years prolongation of a shameful, pitiful, merciful condition. It has taken six years for us to stir ourselves—the proud
and prosperous city of Los Angeles—to remove this blot upon our reputation, to take
definite steps to wipe out the shame
and cruelty.

Once more The Times urges that not another day be wasted. Investigations of the jails of the country have been made, plans
and counter-plans have been discussed and
debated ad nauseam, but now that the financing
has been arrived at, now that the financing has been made possible and nothing remains but the completion
of details, for common decency's sake
let us push the thing through without more delay.

HOPES CHESTS FOR MEN.

1. Sarcom was intended in a recent editorial reference to the possibility of having
hope chests for men; but now a sober and sensible correspondent asks why not? The best answer is to repeat the question: Why not? If all our young men and prospective bridesgrooms are to have hope chests our
emporiums will soon be putting in fancy
lines of silvered-hinged and cedar-lined chests
with compartments for hooch and cigarettes.
The hope chest will be exhibited at stag
dinners and the guests will toss their forks
and spoons and small change into the yawning
receptacle. But if hope chests for men will encourage personal thrift they are worth calm and courteous consideration.

DRAWING PAY.

The head of the combined railway
systems of Japan is said to receive a salary of $3500 a year. Several American lines
are said to be paying their executives $100,000
a year. It is hoped that all are earning their money. It looks as if the oriental had a cinch on him.

THE VASTY DEEP.

The Secretary of the Navy says that
we must have a lot more of different kinds of submarines. We hardly see why. The administration certainly does not care to explore the spot where Gov. Cox went down

and no other deepsea adventures are desirable.

CASEY TO QUIT HARBOR BOARD.

Offers to Resign by Phone; Letter is Advised.

Says He Hopes to Assist in Straightening Tangle.

Unless Council Acts Today Body Will Not Exist.

The resignation of Edward Casey as a member of the Board of Harbor Commissioners will reach the Mayor by 10 a.m. today, according to a statement issued by Commissioner Casey to his assistant, Attorney Leach, legal adviser of the commissioners. Mr. Leach, in a telephone conversation, said that he intended to resign at once, and asked Mr. Leach to receive the resignation by telephone. Mr. Leach accepted the resignation and Mr. Casey said he would also announce that he would not attend this morning's meeting of the board. There is no record of any such record in existence, as President Gordon resigned on Monday, and Commissioner Hughes will be the only remaining commissioner in the board.

A Lowered Vitality is Us

When your blood is impoverished
and loaded with waste products,
it can not get the full strength out
of the food, and as a consequence
you become weak, nervous
and upset.

When products get into the body
through the intestines, lungs,
skin, the glands, etc., they
use up the digestive juices, while they produce waste products. If they do not properly function, waste products
are formed.

As a result, nature strives to get rid of the poisons. It may do this through the skin, in the form of itch, the glands, etc., or through the lungs, to settle in the tissues, and
cause rheumatism.

For over fifty years, thousands of men and women have relied on S. S. S. to clear
their blood of waste products. S.

How To Keep Your Blood
Pure and Wholesome

The Person With Rich, Red, Normal Blood—The Person of Health and Energy—That Meets With Business and Social Success.

Vitality Is Usually Due to Waste Products in the Blood.

Your blood is impoverished and with waste products, you are the full strength out of your body, and as a consequence, you are weak, nervous and low in spirits.

These waste products get into the blood through the intestines, but through other sources—for instance, glands. Some glands secrete juices, while others secrete products. If they fall into the blood, they are waste products.

William De Mille Replies to Dr. G. A. Briegleb.

Censorship Plan is Called Moral Autocracy.

Wholesale Condemnation of Industry Deprecated.

The Times is in receipt of a copy of an open letter from William C. De Mille, motion-picture producer, to Dr. Gustav A. Briegleb, president of the Los Angeles Ministerial Union, which is in part as follows:

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 27.
Dr. G. A. Briegleb, Los Angeles.
Sir: In all the recent agitation about censoring the movies, I have refrained from public comment because I feel that my motives would be misinterpreted.

But after reading extracts from your speech of yesterday, and from the talk of other clergymen, who hold your views, I feel that my duty as an American citizen demands from me an expression of thought as public as your utter condemnation of the people and purpose of my profession.

Although you unequivocally condemn the members of my calling because there are a few rank sheep among them, I do not equally condemn the members of yours, merely because they contain a number of narrow-minded bigoted individuals who have forgone education in order to acquire dogma.

You are reported to have said yesterday: "The Jews get together to say what my boy and girl shall see on the screen, then I am going to fight."

With you and your supporters get together to say what my children shall see on the screen, then I am going to fight.

One of your supporters said yesterday: "Our children's characters are not for sale at any price."

"Beautiful and worthy thoughts."

But this is my profession, an American citizen, for sale at any price.

Did it ever occur to you that by the use of the expedient of sending your children to go to the movies you could defeat their alleged eagerness for vice, and at the same time teach them from an artist to express truth as I see it?

I demand my right under the American Constitution for freedom of speech, in whatever medium I choose.

I respect your right to express whatever you consider to be the truth, and I respect the fact that committees of my profession be empowered by law to make such eliminations in your sermons as they see fit. I do not interfere with the exercise of your chosen calling, to make it conform to our ideas of what should or should not be said in pulpits.

One of your supporters said yesterday: "The motion-picture men have taken away our Sunday without any compensation."

This is interesting if true.

Did he mean that he could only worship in his own way if others were forced to do the same?

As far as I know, there is no law, either moral, social, or governmental, compelling people to go to picture theaters.

There are some quite generally accepted laws compelling them to go to church.

As an American citizen, I must oppose the union of church and state to enact regulations which will interfere with my spending Sunday in accordance with my own conscience.

As an artist, I must oppose the infliction of a group of inartistic, though well-intended, people to interfere with the expression of truth in art as I see it.

As a student of the Bible, I deny you the right to interpret the scriptures to me and prevent my practicing my own understanding of them.

As a father, I respect your placard restrictions on my children because you do not let your own to share in such entertainment as I approve.

As a social student, I can see no reason to prohibit your Americanism in its truest sense.

Than the recent movement to practice autocracy in religion, imperialism in social life, despotism in art.

Sincerely yours,

WILLIAM C. DE MILLE.

Branton Studios Worker Gets Decrease on Charge of Cruelty.

Mrs. Irene Gerstad, who was Irene Duval before her marriage and who has been connected with the stock company of Branton studios, was granted a divorce yesterday by Judge Summerfield from Harry W. Gerstad, a camera operator.

Mrs. Gerstad was compelled to leave her husband two months after they were married, she testified. She said she was taken to the hospital with a broken jaw, blackened eye and a badly sprained back, resultant from a vicious beating which her husband is charged with having inflicted upon her when he came home one afternoon and found William H. Reynolds in the apartment.

Mr. Reynolds testified for Mrs. Gerstad that he had been in the apartment the previous fifteen minutes when Mr. Gerstad entered and proceeded to beat up everybody in the place. The latter was arrested at the time.

BLUE LAW.

Will Keep His Organization
and Five Millions in East if City Adopts Censorship.

Myron T. Selznick yesterday telephoned to M. C. Levese of the Robert Brunton studios that he will not bring his producing organization here from New York if Los Angeles adopts municipal censorship. Mr. Selznick, who obtained contracts by which all Selznick picture-making units would come here after his announcement, says he will do so at the coming year. Mr. Levese declares that at least two other big New York producing organizations will follow Mr. Selznick's action if the censorship ordinance goes through.

Mr. Selznick's telegram said:

"We are thus struck to learn that Los Angeles, the home of motion pictures, contemplates censorship. If the city does this, we are leaving New York as it will be impossible for the Selznick organization to come to Los Angeles to make pictures."

Picture men are immediately, as the adoption of censorship in Los Angeles would establish the most dangerous of precedents."

of "excited public opinion," said President Weaver. "It is impossible to decide what is right or wrong. The motion-picture industry is on trial all over the world. Give the industry a fair hearing before action is taken."

CRISWELL'S VIEWS.

President Criswell, who voted later against immediate action in advancing the public welfare, advised reporters earlier yesterday to the City Attorney to prepare an ordinance creating a motion-picture commission.

This censorship agitation started as a result of the proposed showing of Mrs. Clara Smith Hamon, German, film star, who objected to the showing of a picture made by a woman whose sole claim to fame was that she was the "worst actress in the world."

"A beautiful and worthy thought."

But this is my profession, an American citizen, for sale at any price.

SAY NEW RATE HURTS HARBOR.

Reduction on Lumber Granted
to Espee is Attacked.

Fear It Will Threaten Port as Chief Place of Entry.

Discrimination in Favor of Bay Cities Charged.

A direct blow at Los Angeles Harbor, one which will seriously affect its prestige as the leading port of entry for lumber of the Pacific Coast, is the interpretation placed by local lumbermen and shippers upon the permission granted by the Southern Pacific to reduce its rates on lumber from San Francisco to Los Angeles. The effect, if its declared, will be to divert the bulk of the lumber shipments from Oregon, Washington and Northern California into San Francisco and other Bay ports, whence it will be shipped to Los Angeles by rail. This will practically cut off the great business which has been built up through the direct shipment of lumber from the North west to Los Angeles Harbor, and may result in the complete cessation of lumber importing activities at the harbor.

As the result of a hearing before the Railroad Commission last week the Southern Pacific was permitted to reduce its rates on lumber from San Francisco to Los Angeles from 44 cents per 100 pounds to 25 cents, a rate which is fixed by local lumbermen as being discriminatory in favor of the northern cities, particularly in view of the fact that the rate from Los Angeles to San Francisco, which was recently established, is 47 cents per 100. This puts Los Angeles in a position where all of her lumber must be received from San Francisco by rail. On the roads, under the new rates, are enabled to compete successfully with the all-water shipment, as local dealers will be compelled to ship lumber to San Francisco owing to the prohibitive rates.

OTHER INEQUALITIES.

Other inequalities in the new freight schedules are pointed out. The present rate over the Santa Fe to San Diego from Los Angeles is 15 cents per 100 pounds, but from San Diego to Los Angeles is 19 cents.

The result of the shipment of lumber to Los Angeles by rail will be no advance in lumber prices but it will be a definite loss to the harbor business may be cut off, and it may put Los Angeles in a position where she will entirely depend upon San Francisco for her supplies. Moreover, it is pointed out, a dangerous precedent is established in that the railroad companies may be induced to compete with the rates which will make Los Angeles Harbor practically useless as receiving port for goods ordinarily shipped by rail.

In his testimony before the Railroad Commission, M. A. Cummings, assistant general freight agent for the Southern Pacific, said the main reason for the adjustment of rates was due to the fact that after a study of the market movement of lumber from San Francisco to the South as against the all-water route from San Francisco to the Mendoceino coast and south to San Diego.

COMPANY'S STATEMENT.

Mr. Cummins further stated that his company was hauling no lumber from San Pedro to Los Angeles. His statement was as follows: "Heretofore we have enjoyed the hauls out of San Pedro. Today that business is rapidly getting away from us. We are getting away from San Pedro. We can't meet the competition out of San Pedro very well. We have given up our competition with San Pedro in view to establishing lumber yards on our lines out in the country, but we haven't had much success in that. The business is now moving to a greater extent than ever before by motor trucks from the yards at San Pedro, according to the job." This statement is emphatically denied by the lumber men, who say that the great percentage of lumber is brought from the harbor to Los Angeles by rail. The amount of lumber to the amount of 784,309,941 feet was received at Los Angeles Harbor, and $2,070,345 feet at San Pedro, making a total of 7,223,984,942 feet. At the rate of thirty tons to the car, this makes a total of 374,664 cars. The transportation of this vast amount of lumber from the port to the city by truck is a physical impossibility, it is pointed out.

ADJUSTMENT OF RATES.

Other inequalities in the new freight schedules are pointed out. The present rate over the Santa Fe to San Diego from Los Angeles is 15 cents per 100 pounds, but from San Diego to Los Angeles is 19 cents.

PROTEST CHANGES.

Candy Makers Win Opposition to
Senate's Proposed Tax Steps.

Telegrams protesting against proposed changes in the manufacturers' tax on candy were forwarded yesterday to the United States Senator for California, and to members of the Western Conference Association. A bill reported by the Senate Finance Committee provides for a tax on the manufacture of 5 per cent to 3 per cent for all candy selling for less than 40 cents a pound and 10 per cent for all other candy, according to Nicholas Nelson, executive secretary of the association.

As nearly all candies sold in boxes sell for 40 cents or more, the change would mean a large increase in the tax manufacturers will be required to pay. Mr. Nelson declared.

The revenue bill recently passed by the House of Representatives lowered the present tax to 1 per cent. Local dealers and manufacturers were in favor of the House measure, but would prefer the present rate to the changes proposed in the Senate, Mr. Nelson stated.

PROTEST CHANGES.

Candy Makers Win Opposition to
Senate's Proposed Tax Steps.

Telegrams protesting against proposed changes in the manufacturers' tax on candy were forwarded yesterday to the United States Senator for California, and to members of the Western Conference Association. A bill reported by the Senate Finance Committee provides for a tax on the manufacture of 5 per cent to 3 per cent for all candy selling for less than 40 cents a pound and 10 per cent for all other candy, according to Nicholas Nelson, executive secretary of the association.

As nearly all candies sold in boxes sell for 40 cents or more, the change would mean a large increase in the tax manufacturers will be required to pay. Mr. Nelson declared.

The revenue bill recently passed by the House of Representatives lowered the present tax to 1 per cent.

On Issue Two of Part I in this issue of The Times appears the third of the new series of local comic strips centering about Ciego Wad, the famous character created by The Times. This was $5 for the man who thought of the second best idea. In last week's contest, You can think of all ideas, just as funny or funny. There is a new contest every week with $10 for the first prize and $5 for the second, with $2 apiece for every idea The Times can use in this local strip. Anybody can send in ideas, as many as he wishes. The second contest is now on. It will close tomorrow evening and a third will start Friday morning. Read the rules under the first Wad strip, tickle up the old funny bone and let's go!

denied by the lumber men, who say that the great percentage of lumber is brought from the harbor to Los Angeles by rail. The amount of lumber to the amount of 784,309,941 feet was received at Los Angeles Harbor, and $2,070,345 feet at San Pedro, making a total of 7,223,984,942 feet. At the rate of thirty tons to the car, this makes a total of 374,664 cars. The transportation of this vast amount of lumber from the port to the city by truck is a physical impossibility, it is pointed out.

A definite course of action to counteract the possible effects of the new rate adjustment is now being taken by the lumbermen and the lumber men, in order, it is declared, to protect the position of Los Angeles Harbor as the largest lumber port on the Pacific Coast.

SCHOOLS NEED ADDED FUNDS.

Pasadena to Call Bond Election in Near Future.

Hot Spell Brings Usual Mad Dog Scare.

Plan to Stop Reflection from Steps of Postoffice.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE) PASADENA, Sept. 27.—Another school bond election will be called in Pasadena school district, the $750,000 derived from the bonds voted last June being insufficient to provide adequate housing for the growing school population.

This was decided by the school board today, following the hearings petitioned for new buildings from the Los Angeles, Glendale, Altadena, Washington, and Opportunity schools. The board adopted a resolution calling for a special bond election, but leaving the amount of the proposed bond issue and the date of the election to be decided later.

Suggestion that junior high schools be established in the northwest and northeast sections were made at the hearings by Arthur Longfellow and Jefferson Parent-Teacher Association. The board has not yet decided its course in this regard.

Marton & Van Pelt, Pasadena, named architects for the new Andrew Jackson elementary school in the northeast section. The board plans to spend about $75,000 on this building.

The board is considering sale of the old school building at Marengo and Walnut streets, and with the proceeds buy a sixteen-acre tract and erect a new building for the Opportunity school.

MERGED DROPS LITTLE.

Today we note no great as yesterday, which still stands as the hottest day of the year. The mercury registered 104 at the top mark today, compared with 103 yesterday.

Two women fainted from the heat. Mrs. H. L. Williams, 154 East Colorado street, and Mrs. I. F. Miller, 410 North Lake Avenue, were being treated by police surgeons. Both soon recovered consciousness.

One mad dog case has been reported since yesterday. Mrs. Vail, aged 10 years, residing with his parents at 735 Mahanita avenue, was treated at the Emergency Hospital. The dog bit her. The lad is being observed for symptoms and the dog has been locked up for observation as to possible rabies.

WILL ERADICATE GLARE.

The old agitation about the glare of the white steps of Pasadena's beautiful city hall building has been revived during the present warm spell, with the result that an announcement was made today by the Federal Office of Health that Los Angeles, supervising architect of the Federal buildings, had agreed to have the glare remedied. Under Mr. Wetmore's direction, the steps will be treated to obviate the reflection of the sun, but without destroying the harmonies. The details of the process are not known here yet.

GET STRIKE FEVER.

Even Newsboys at Taft Engage in "Labor Movement."

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

SANTA BARBARA, Sept. 27.—E. N. Tibbets, who says he is a chauffeur for Bruce Crane, proprietor of a Venice auto rent business and Dr. B. H. Baldwin, who claims to reside in San Francisco, are held in jail here charged by the auto theft department of the Automobile Club of Southern California, with their car being taken from the club's garage at 5 and 15th streets.

Tibbets claims Dr. Baldwin hired him for a drive and they went to San Francisco and were returning to Venice when arrested here. The chauffeur of Crane's car, a person claiming to be Crane has telephoned here directing the police to release them. The car was held for the day.

They organized a union local, elected a president, formed a law and order committee and proceeded to fall in ranks with the unemployed.

As many as 500 are said to be said to be affected by the walkout. Some of the younger strikers, while on the job could "vote" only a single ballot, but the older ones in the struggle to gain the "wheelbarrow for the necessities of boyhood." It is reported. Others could carry an ax and an ax of the big Sunday edition.

Several fracases have resulted from alleged attempts of "strike-breakers" to make the news business flourish again.

The boys are determined, it is declared, to gain a more remunerative return for their labor.

One point at issue, which was reported to the newsboys, was the amount of the strike was the grievance of the boys that they received only 2 cents for selling a 10-cent paper, whereas they wanted that they should receive 4 cents. The strike is said to be effective.

WEALTH OF VALLEY REFLECTED.

Statistics Just Completed Show Great Prosperity in Pomona District.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

POMONA, Sept. 27.—Reflecting the growth of the agricultural, commercial and manufacturing resources of the Pomona Valley, statistics showing that the financial resources of the five cities of Pomona, San Dimas, La Verne, Claremont and Chino amount to many millions have just been compiled.

The eleven banks and two building and loan associations in the valley represent a capital sum of $1,154,000; their deposits amount to $11,711,100, and their total assets amount to $12,849,854. This is estimated to be the largest increase in financial assets during the past ten years and indicates that the value of property in the valley is considerably greater owing to the greater wealth represented by the bank assets.

The capital stock of the Pomona Manufacturing Company amounts to $19,000, divided among four banks and two building and loan associations. Nearly $10,000,000 has been invested in the Pomona banks and loan associations. The total assets of the local institutions are $1,012,828. In the other five towns the combined capital of the banks is $22,000, and the deposits are $2,558,124, with total assets of $2,828,028.

SETTLE BIG ROW.

Supervisors Act in Welfare Commission Muddle.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 27.—Mrs. Maude S. Bell was yesterday selected by the county welfare commission by the supervisors and it is expected that her selection will be followed by the resignation of Rev. Ralph Smith of Redlands, president of the commission, who has been unalterably opposed to Mrs. Bell's selection.

Mrs. Bell was formerly an assistant to Supervisor Mabel Haines. The entire executive staff of the commission resigned recently on demand of the supervisors, and the friction between Miss Haines and Mrs. Bell, a majority of the commission being opposed to the selection. Mrs. Bell is the secretary, as she also heads the State Board of Charities, Selection of Mrs. Bell was by unanimous vote of the supervisors.

The commission will complete reorganization of the Welfare Commission to include at least two supervisors.

SEEK TO BLOCK TRUCKING PLAN

Companies Here Oppose Wide Freight Project.

Fight Franchise Granting in Rail Body Hearing.

Scheme Calls for Enormous Produce Movement.

Officials representing almost 100 motor freight transport companies operating in Southern California, together with attorney representing various steam and electric railroads, were engaged before the State Railroads Commission yesterday in contesting the application of the Hodges transportation system for a franchise to carry capacity freight over 100,000 tons designated routes in the State.

The hearing, which is before Examiner Hanson, was set for two days, but the hearing, as indicated, attorneys said, that it will require a week to finish. The entire day yesterday was spent in preparation for the hearing, P. M. Hodges, president of the Hodges Transportation System.

Virtually every motor freight carrying line in Southern California is engaged in a frantic race to add to the Hodges system on the ground that it will constitute unfair competition with the small companies. The railroads, however, attorneys explained, that the business under the franchise it seeks is on such an enormous scale of such a different class, that other companies are not equipped to handle it, and that its operations will not in any way interfere with the business of the smaller companies.

Under the franchise, it is declared, the company proposes to move enormous shipments, running from the thousands of tons of perishable products to be handled, and elsewhere. These shipments, it is said, are entirely too big to be handled by other companies because of lack of equipment. The Hodges system, it is said, will be the only motor freight transporter sufficiently well equipped to handle this kind of business.

The hearing will be continued today and it is expected that, at the close of the day's session, Examiner Hanson will set aside a further continuation.

The Hodges Transportation System was represented by the law firm of Handall, Bartlett and White of Los Angeles, and Davis and Brookman of San Francisco.

Arden Dairy Sets Visitors' Days Beginning Next Week.

The 250 cows of the Arden Dairy, Inc., ably assisted by the management, beginning October 1, are going to give "at home" every Thursday and Saturday morning from 8 to 10:30 a.m. The public is invited to inspect the aristocratic herds and the certified milk machinery and to spend a tea party that will be held on those days in the gardens of the dairy.

"We believe there is nothing of greater importance before the public today than the selection of food, and especially that of milk, for the health of the human body," said F. B. Carter, Jr., secretary of the company, said yesterday. "So we have set these days when city consumers of milk will be afforded the opportunity of watching the production and handling of milk products and paying for work done in accordance with the highest standards set by both practice and science."

The dairy may be reached by driving east on the Valley Boulevard, turning north at Savanna or the El Monte bridge and continuing one-half mile north.

How Encampment of Spanish War Veterans Was Won Revealed.

How Los Angeles triumphed over Atlanta, Ga., Pittsburgh, Boston, Atlantic City and San Antonio, Tex., and secured for this city the 1922 national encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans was told yesterday by a delegation of 12 members of the organization to the Minneapolis convention, who have just returned from the meeting. These delegates include P. F. Rodger, Commander; Colonel Oliver Fender, Capt. Frank J. Gunther, Department Commander; R. M. Galbreath and J. W. King of Richmond.

The encampment will be held here Sept. 11-16, 1922, and it is expected that more than 1800 delegates from 20 states will be here.

The ambulance, which was answering a call to the southwestern part of the city, picked up the two injured men and carried them to the receiving Hospital, where they were treated for severe lacerations on the face and body. Driver E. C. White says the limousine stopped to avoid hitting it. He told the police he was not driving faster than twenty-five miles an hour and was driving his car with signs. The court stated, he will be released on probation after one year. The $1.50 a day to be paid for his arrest was badly damaged, but White escaped injury.

Head of Canadian Tourist Society Writes Praise of the All-Year Club.

That mistaken idea about California's summer climate is widely prevalent and that there is need of an organization such as the All-Year Club of Southern California, to make known the facts of the Southern's summer climate, were statements made yesterday by Peter Hooper, president of the Canadian Tourist Association, which has maintained a winter headquarters at Santa Monica, and which has a summer headquarters at San Diego, spreading the All-Year idea. He said:

"As head of the only organization maintained exclusively by tourists from the world over, allow me to say that the objects of your club meet with my approval.

"I have just returned from a trip to the Southland. I visited the Far North and East, and I heard (just as I have heard for years past) people talking as if California were as hot as the Sahara Desert or Death Valley, as far as summer heat is concerned. When the thermometer was ranging from 90 to 100 degrees in Toronto, Buffalo and elsewhere during June, July and August, I expressed their surprise that I complained of the excessive heat, 'seeing that I had just come from California.'

"California should obtain more summer tourists and would obtain more, if the tourists of the North and East were told about the true summer climate. The world has been paid to visit the Los Angeles and San Diego area, and Southern California deserves the right to let the real tourist know that you have in this Southland the 'Garden of Eden' that blooms fifty-two weeks in the year."

WOULD PROTECT
MEMORIAL DAY.Commercialism Deprecated by G.A.R. Commander.Declares People Getting Away from Real Purpose.Scores Radical Societies at National Encampment.INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) Sept. 27.— PROTECTION of Memorial Day from commercialism and consecration of the day to the memory of the soldiers
of the Grand Army of the Republic
and its allied organizations
Commander-in-Chief William
A. Ketcham, declared in his address
today at the first business session
of the fifty-fifth national encampment.
Failure to protect the day
from commercialism is held to be a reproach to the Grand Army.

TRIBUTE TO MEMORIES.

The 20th of May is our Holy Day," said the commander-in-chief.
"We instituted it and for fifty years
we have held it in honor and
stated at the shrines of men who died
that the nation might live and paid tribute to their memories. It was a day when we could not be absent from the shrines of men who died for the nation, except that of reverence and devotion to memory
of the dead.""We still note with pain that in too many localities sports of one
kind or another are taking away
the character of the day, and
from the observance of this day.
In many States by legislation it is protected from desecration, and in the others it should be. It is with the assistance of our able and devoted auxiliary and allies, we are not able to inculcate a deeper reverence for
the memory of the dead, it will be a reproach to us."

FACES LIKE FLINT.

"We ought to set our faces like
flint," said Commander Ketcham.
"against all the evils of the modern world that are threatening—
atheism, I.W.W., anarchy, Ku Klux Klans—whatever their name
may be—that tend to throw a blight
on the fair name of the land that we saved and still love."Death has taken a heavy toll of
the Grand Army members during the past year. We are sorry to have taken, two past commanders-in-chief, forty-five past department
commanders, the Assistant Administrative General, three members of the council of administration and 221 of the members.

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Sub-
committees of President Harding's
conference on unemployment start
work on their particular phases of the general problem today. The
subcommittees on emergency measures and manufacturers unanimously agreed to a resolution.A public hearing was held by the committees on unemployment statistics,
at which statisticians who have compiled figures on the subject appeared. Tomorrow there will be a hearing on how to relieve the situation through public employment services. Thursday the
subcommittees on emergency measures and manufacturers and public works will hold a hearing on a hearing on civic relief agencies is set.

ROBINSON PRESIDES.

Before the committee on unemployment statistics of Henry Robinson of Los Angeles is chairman, figures were presented today
showing that the Pacific Coast had less unemployment than any other large section of the country. It was also shown that California had more men still employed and that in the State itself, the southern portion is the most generally employed.

UNEMPLOYED 2,500,000.

The subcommittees had before
them suggestions prepared by the economic advisory committee
before the House. The committee
is the economic advisory committee
of the United States Census Bureau. The committee estimates the number of unemployed, but does not yet have
a definite figure.

INCREASE RESOURCES.

(11.) Increase resources of local and national governments to enable them to cope with unemployment
which your community cannot meet through its industries or through the efforts of individuals.(12.) Formulate standards and rules for temporary employment for those cut off work, dealing with rotation of shifts, to be given to resident family men, etc.(13.) Make provision for emergency relief for those who are out of work
and to make extraordinary sacrifices to assist their own relatives and acquaintances who are out of work.(14.) Encourage migration of unemployed to and from your community.(15.) Make your emergency
and community agencies ready to
prevent industrial crises and to
deal with them with foresight when unpreventable.(16.) Past experience shows that caution should be exercised in establishing emergency relief, so as to avoid food or lodging without provision of work; bundle days and other such measures.

(17.) ENCOURAGE MIGRATION.

(18.) Discourage migration of
unemployed to and from your community.(19.) Make your emergency
and community agencies ready to
prevent industrial crises and to
deal with them with foresight when
unpreventable.
